Wasunvorox, to o'clock, F. M.

Notice has been posted at Gen. Mansfield's headquarters that no more passes will be granted until Saturday.

A large number of regiments here have marching orders, and expect to move forward during the hight, probably across the Potomac. What is going on over the other side cannot be learned. All except military communication being shart aff.

There is an unusual stir and a general expectation of something to happen. Let me express the hope that for once there is no meliake in considering all these things as figures of a certain and speedy advance.

We are gratified at these manifestations in the part of England in taver of the insegrity of the Union. But they are not mough seemething more is required. Her Majesty's proclamation of "neutrality" places our revolted "so-styled Confederate States" in the character of belligerents, on a footing of equality with the United States, which is an insult and an impertinence that we have a right to resent. With equal latimess and good faith we could have technical the Canadian rebellion of 1837 as sets government, or the Irish rebels is as belligerents, or the great Sepoy cetter of 1858 as on an international

In the battle of Bosworth field King Richard III was grierously perplaced by the presence of six Richmonds. Fortu-nately there is only one Richmond in the field of the great American battle, and when that one is taken care of, the war will be practically ended. Jeff. Davis has removed his sent of Government from Montgomery to the Capital of Virginia. Richmond the last and decisive stand of the traitors is to be made. If Richmond falls, everything class falls with it. In a recent speech of Howell Cobb, defending the action of his moot Congress in removing their Capital to Richmond, the great financier declared that the cause of Virginia was the cause of the South, and if they could not hold Richmond they could not hold anything. The special correspondent of the London Times expressed the opinion, in this city, that if Gem Scott abould take Richmond he would have little difficulty in taking everything else. There can be hardly a doubt that General Scott understands the business the same way, and that he is now concentrating all his forces in Virginia with a view of ending the war practically by Virginia soil.

Aside from the sisupendous disaster of losing his seat of Government, Jeff. Davis would find his army so demoralized by the succession of defeats, which must necessarily precede it, that it could not promise the souther and the desired that the could not promise and the defendance of the south and the ground. They are lost listening the held together, or induced to make another stand. Charleston, Montgomery and Nawo Ordens will go down like a row of bricks after the hand brick is toppla.

This morning, at 5 o'clock, I was called to my window by the mellow horn. Observe, the mellow horn is generally taken by this community in the night, and has a very different effect from the one that the Wisconsta Regiment were marching to this morning. Two and two they came, sweeping past in a quick and soldierly step, though some had a little of the same difficulty a sallor has in getting his legs after a long voyage. But it was

But at 4 o'clock the President and Sceretaires Chase and Beward, who were pretty hall feathers in all the was councils, took a ritie very leisurely through the city, and dis not seem to have been putting on any new paint or bear's cleave, or running their horse in the ground. Whenever such men talk peace they mean way, and when I reflect that a preparation for treason like this is taking place within two hours' ride of Phillediphia, I wonder that the people of that loyat-city do not themselves end an armed force to put it down. You smast not forget that I apprised you two months age of the design of these Bayards to selse Fort Delaware, opposite Delaware (City, and I now warn you again that this Peace Convention is another excuss for imagurating in Deaware the sanguinary civil war that now rages in Missouri. I understand that these Delaware secondonists have induced the Delaware Railroad Company to furnish them with twelve cars to take their same from Wilmington to Dover, on the Stith. If the General Government does not send men to ernsh out this incipient treason, at Philadelphia send the men to do the work; because, if the Bayards can control D laware, there is an end to the commerce of Philadelphis, and in a short time privateers will be hovering in the neighborhood of her wharves. What is to be Bone with Mr. Marvay.

The delay in the case of Mr. Harvey continues to excite indignant comment. It has not yet been determined either to recall or tetam him. The Secretary of the Interior said a day or two ago, that Mr. Harvey had "done nothing which any loyal eithrea might not have done." But I am informed, on the best authority, that all the proofs against him have not yet been made known to all the members of the Cabinet. But why the delay in damanding their production. There is good reason to believe that they are of the most damning character. Toleration even of such a suspicion stynes a complicity in some direction, or, at least, lack of a proper sense of dignity and subfraspect among some who stand higher than foreign ministers. MINISTRY AT LARGE.—I want to find work for two stout Sweedish men just landed from the old country; they can speak no English, but are well up in all kinds of farm work, and ont are well up in all kinds of farm work, and will be capital harvest men. Parties wanting them had better come for them directly, to 177 Randolph street, second floor, as they will hardly do to go alone. "SHARFS" SHOOTERS WANTED.—On the de-parture of the Sturges Rifle Company for Vir-ginia, J. C. Babcock of the corps remained in this city, with the desire and intention of enroll-ing twenty men, for whom "Sharpe's rifles" and full equipments are now in readiness here. This is a chance for the boys who "can shoot," 'join the expedition." It should be only sort time before the men are en route for j. Gen. McClellan's beadquarters.

Home Guard of Hannibal, Missouri. These men are in need of equipment, of suitable arms and other munitions of war, and through the laity of their commander sak the people of Chicago to aid in supplying the want. Much as haw been contributed in this city for patrictic purposes, we are quite sure this appeal will meet with no niggardly response. Contributions may be left with Mr. Drake, of the Tremont House, or with Measrs. Turner & Sidway, 200 Randolph street. Now let our citizens give liberally and give promptly. Delay may cost a multitude of valuable lives.

CAMP LONG.—Matters are now fully settle and order reigns at Camp Long, newly esta lished at Cottage Grove. The following is to programme or the day:

apt. Williams. Company H. (Moline Rifles) Capt. Garriott. Company I. (Anti-Beauregards) capt. Howard. Company K. (Chicago Zouaves) Capt. Clybourne The uniforms for the regiment are ready for them at Springfield, to be obtained on re-quisition. They could now be supplied with State arms, muskets, but they will wait to be caulpped with rides.

Throughout yesterday the camp was visited by a large number of our citizens. An interesting feature of the day was a thorough and protracted officers' drill, as a skeleton regiment, conducted by Col. Turchin.

AT HIS OLD TRICKS AGAIN.-Old Bigelow of Cordova in Rock Island county, was for a year or more in our jail here, on a charge of year or more in our jain ear, on a charge or counterfeiting, than which he "hasn't done anything else" for the past twenty-five years. Cunning old fellow, he was very ill, he only wanted to get out into a four post bedstead and die, under which pledge to quit this up-per world, he was allowed to go. He how-ever considers himself good for something yet, and we see by our exchanges in that see ever considers himself good for something yet, and we see by our exchanges in that sec-tion of the State that he is at the old business again. Two counterfeiters we arrested at his place a few nights since, and is his cellar was found all of the presses, dies, materials, dec, necessary to carry on the business on a large scale. About a half bushel of coin, consisting of quantics and helf dollars was also found scale. About a half bushes of coin, consisting of quarter and half dollars, was also found. A large quantity of stolen goods were found scereted on the premises. The coin was so perfect, that it would deceive any but an excellent judge. It is to be hoped that Old Bigelow and his confederates will not escape the punishment they deserve, this time.

CONSULAR DIMERTES.—The senior partner in the banking house of Hoffman & Gelpcke, in this city, lately suspended, is Consul of Sare Coburg Goths. Judgment having been rendered sgainst them in a Justice Court, a the clause in the Constitution, as follows:

"In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers, and consuls, and those in which a state shall be a party, the Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction."
